

SLEEPER

GLOBAL HOTEL DESIGN

MAY | JUNE 2019

Shinola Hotel

The luxury goods brand ventures into hospitality with a handcrafted hotel in its home town of Detroit

Jean-Philippe Nuel

The French designer brings his own style of classic elegance to Europe's heritage buildings

Belmond Cadogan

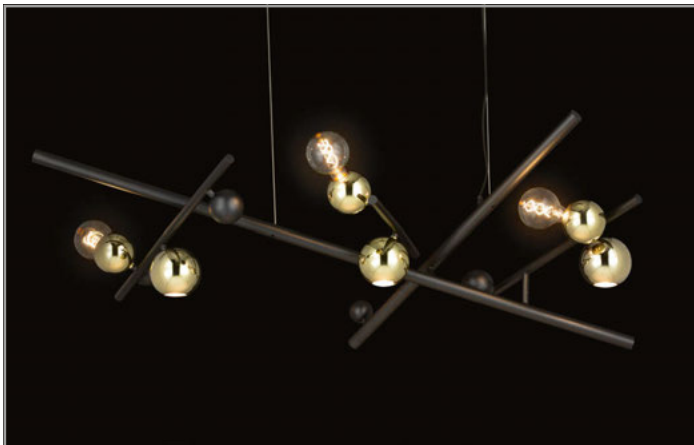

Charm, character and craftsmanship come together at Belmond's London debut

PENTA LIGHT

Impatto

Designed by Stormo Studio, Penta Light's Impatto series comprises an opal glass sphere over which a transparent fabric is stretched. Born from the idea of capturing a cosmic phenomenon such as the falling of a meteor or star, the lamp channels Stormo's aim to pursue a balance between aesthetics and functionality.

www.pentalightgroup.it

BRAND VAN EGMOND

Galaxy

Brand Van Egmond's Galaxy collection takes the form of floor lamps, chandeliers or hanging lights, and comes in six finish options: copper burnished, black, brass, nickel, aged nickel and burnished brass. Envisioned by designer, architect and founder William Brand, the lighting sculpture is characterised by the interaction of lines and globes, it's shapes and forms offering a unique visual when viewed from different angles.

www.brandvanegmond.com

JUNG

Plug & Light

Responding to the blurring of boundaries between living and working spaces, Jung has collaborated with its partners Insta, Gira and Brumberg to launch Plug & Light. The system uses a magnet to dock luminaires to a light socket, making the design more modular and flexible than before, while also enabling it to be adaptable to a variety of hospitality environments. In addition to the light socket, Insta has developed two LED light attachments that Jung provides to match its switch designs.

www.jung.de

